

Laconia Historical & Museum Society is hosting a free public program entitled "Treasures of the Wright Museum", Monday February 24th at 7:00 p.m. at the Laconia Public Library. The collections of the Wright Museum offer the most comprehensive material record in New Hampshire of the U.S. involvement in WWII. Museum director Mark Foynes will provide a lecture and display of artifacts that illustrate this enjoyable and nostalgic exploration of the experiences of America's Greatest Generation.

For more information on this program you may contact Jennifer Carroll-Plante at 527-1278 or email lhmslpl@metrocast.net. Laconia Public Library is located at 695 North Main Street in downtown Laconia, across from Veterans Square. Refreshments will be served. LHMS is a private, non-profit 501(c)(3) organization dedicated to collecting, preserving, and interpreting the history of the City of Laconia, New Hampshire. www.laconiahistorical.org.
