

Laconia Historical Hosts French-Canadian Forum

On Monday June 16th Laconia Historical will host a round table discussion with local French-Canadian residents about their experiences growing up in the Laconia area. Panelists will include Jeanne Lambert, Paul Maheux, F. Andre Paquette, Rhea Samson, and Elaine Scott. This program is free and open to the public. Listen to stories of days gone by or share your own personal recollections. This program is done in conjunction with the exhibit “Je t’aime Laconia” on display at the Laconia Public Library until November 1, 2008. For more info call Jennifer Carroll-Plante, director of Laconia Historical & Museum Society, 527.1278 or email lhmslpl@metrocast.net.
